

Howard Weiss DO

Medical Director of Orthopedic/Trauma Program,
Medical Director of the Amputee Program

Dr. Weiss graduated from the New York College of Osteopathic Medicine in 1988 and completed his residency at Mount Sinai Hospital. He completed his internship at Coney Island Hospital and his residency in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation at Mount Sinai Medical Center and Affiliated Hospitals.

Dr. Weiss had been an independent practitioner in the Jacksonville area for 16 years when he joined the Brooks Rehabilitation Medical Group in 2012. Dr. Weiss' specific interest and expertise is in the areas of orthopedics, chronic pain, multi-trauma, and amputee rehabilitation.